MEDICINAL.

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and wil the blood in a living person (about three gallons) passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it. Bile is the natural purgative of the from it. Bile is the natural purgative of the bowels, and if the Liver becomes terpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to excape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malarial Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Homach, and general debility follow. MER-RELL'S HEPATINE, the great vegetable discovery for torpidity, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two cunces of bile each time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile; and the cheet of even a few doses upon yellow complexion there is an excess of bile; and the enect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown, dirty locking skin, will astonish all who try it—they being the first symptoms to disappear. The cure of all bilious diseases and Liver complaint is made certain by taking Hepatine in eccordance with directions. Headacho is generally cured in the main entrance to the Market on Royal st., twenty minutes, and no disease that arises goods can be exposed every morning at public twenty minutes, and no disease that arises goods can be exposed every morning at public from the Liver can exist if a fair trial is suction, when the best prices may be expected. given. Take no pills when you can get Hepatine at the same price. For sale by all Druggists. PRICE 25c and S1.

PRACTICAL JOKE.-There is a practical icke which is quite a favorite with Parisian students. Fixing on some thoroughfare where a bridge crosses the Sein, two of them take stations, the first on one side of the river, the second on the other. Looking carefully around, they proceed to take measurements with cords and surveyors' instruments, until on each side quite a crowd has gathered. Next one of the students select some verdant youth who happens to be passing, and politely asks: Would you kindly hold this cord, sir? There is going to be a Government survey. Please retain the cord till the official comes, on no account dropping it for an instant, as the measure ment would thus be lost." He then gives the other end to a second innocent young man, and the way is thus effectually blooked. Meantime his comrade across the bridge has repeated the same performance. Caleches, carriages, drays, all sorts of vehicles, with throngs of foot passangers, have collected, who are gravely told that they must wait, as a Goverament survey is in progress. By this sime the students, of course, have decamped, leaving the unlucky countrymen to manage the impatient crowd as best they can. The affair usually ends in the summoning a detachment of policomen to drive away these victimized distur-bers of the peace. This bosx, though often practiced, is said to be always successful.—

THE POPULATION OF THE GLOBE is estimated in a late number of Petermann's "Mittheilungen" at 1,439,145,300. The following is probably the nearest approximation ever made to the number of believers in the various faiths of the world. How so accurate a census was arrived at the encyclor to list does not inform us: Jews, 7,931,080; Roman Catholics, 186,869, 076; Greek Church, 82,926,049; Protestants, 131,091,941; Mohammedans, 103,453,594; Ma ians and Parsees, 1,007,190; Buddhists, religious of the East, and Pagaos, 483,015,475 Another estimate, apparently founded on the same premises, gives it thus: Jews, 8,000 000; Christians, 371,000,000; Mahommedans, 103, 500,000; Hindoos, 139,500,000; Buddhists, 183 000 000, and believers in aboriginal fetichism, 189,000,000, thus making a total of 000,000. The following is the estimated num ber of religious denominations amongst English speaking communities throughout the world: Episcopalians, 17,750,000; Methodists of all descriptions, 14,000,000; Roman Catholics, 13,500,000; Presbyterians of all descriptions, 10,000,000; Baptists of all descriptions, S.000, 000; Congregationalists, 7,000,000; Unitarians, 1,000,000; Minor religious sects, 1,500,000; of no religion in particular, 7,500,000. Total

English speaking population, 80,250,000. BORAN.-Our lady readers who have not tested the magic properties of borax, says an exchange, have been losing a great help and comfort. Il once used, you will never be without a bottle on your toilet table. It removes the stain and dirt from the hands better than soap, and at the same time softens and smooths the skio. It is splendid for washing the hair, and will, without injury, cleaned brushes and combs in a few moments. For washing purposes it saves both soap and lavor. It will extract the dirt from articles of delicate texture without rubbing, it being no cessary to put the articles in a solution of borax over night, which will need only to be rinsed in the merning. Two tablespoontule of pulverized borax dissolved in a quart of water, to which water be added to cover a pair of blankets, will clense them beautifully. It also saves great labor in washing paints. The said to drive away ants and roaches it sprinkled on the shelves of sales or pantries. Female Pedestrian's Refrain.

BY TUCKER, I munt to be a walker. Yes, that is now the thing ; I want to get my muscle up

And sail around the ting. I want to win a champion's belt, And make the people talk, I want to hear the fellow's shout, "Jerusalem can't she walk."

I want to heat the champion,

And wear a victor's smile, For walking is, I understand, The latest female style.
